TO THE HOARDERS

Say, you.
With a dollar or two.
Or three or four.
Or a whole lot more.
Stuck away, don't knock;
Take that money out of your sock
And put it in circulation;
It's as safe as the nation.
And, by heck!
You haven't say that it's going to wreck.

Circulate it; let it get out.
And you'll mighty soon see
Restored commercial activity.
Say, hoarders, what's scaring you,
anyhow?
You ought to know that what You're doing now to save yourselves
Will send us all to pot;
You're letting panic chase away
Your happiness, confidence,
And paralyze your energies
And dope your common sense.
Loosen up; loosen up;
Put your money where it
It's bound to give the thing a start

And make it go for fair.
With every business end alive,
With stock and crops to burn,
If you will put your money in
You're bound to call the turn.
Say,
You've seen a cloudy day
When you knew the sun was up in the sky,
But it couldn't shine till the clouds rolled by.
Could it? Of course not.
And that's what
Is the trouble with you.
Let your money get through
From where it is hid;
Get down the jar and take off the lid.
Push the clouds aside,
Let your money shine;
Lend a hand,
AND
Kick the stuffing out of panic
Down the whole line.
See?
That's business!

COMPENSATION

(Written for the Ocala Banner.)
What boots the world's brief gratitude—
Are fame and wealth worth wooing?
Lord, let me do a little good
For the sweet sake of doing.

What cares the morning star for praise,
The golden-rod in the vale?
Content, unheard all its days
Carols the nightingale.

But one's reward supreme shall be,
By Him we rise or fall;
What heed, so long as He shall see
And understand it all.

GOLDEN ROD.

He is Up to Making a Choice
"Bikins tells me he is getting awfully tired of living alone."
"I would think he'd marry and settle down."
"I was talking to him about it the other day, and he says he doesn't know whether to get married or buy a phonograph."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

SUNSHINE

"The thing that goes the farthest toward making life worth while,
That costs the least and does the most, is just a pleasant smile.
It's full of worth and goodness, too,
with hearty kindness blent,
It's worth a million dollars, and—
doesn't cost a cent."
—Geo. W. Cooper in Gonzales (Tex.)
Inquirer.

A Thanksgiving and Christmas Item
C. M. Brokaw has about 500 fowls on his chicken farm northwest of town. They are mostly Barred Plymouth Rocks, Rhode Island Reds, Buff Leghorns and Black Minorcas.
At present he is getting only a few eggs each day, but the moulting season will soon be over, and then he looks for about 400 eggs a day. He has taught his hens not to lay while eggs are cheap, but to rest up until they bring 45 cents a dozen or more.
